That was not on her schedule for today. She isn t expecting aliens to contact her telepathically, either. She is only 16, after all. After meeting the aliens on their 1600km spacecraft they discover there is a bigger threat. Another planet has arrived on the other side of the sun. A planet that has begun absorbing the sun s energy. With the sun s output changing, freak weather conditions start becoming more common on Earth. Hurricanes, tornadoes, typhoons and more. If the weather conditions continue to increase in severity, the human race may not survive. Why are the aliens here? How can the disasters on Earth be prevented? And why is the other planet drawing dark gravity energy from Sol? Find out more in Ida and the Planet Invasion. Book #1 in the Galactic Missions Series.
