

The Year of the Book An Anna Wang novel

By Andrea Cheng

HMH Books for Young Readers. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Abigail Halpin (illustrator). Paperback. 160 pages. Dimensions: 7.5in. x 5.1in. x 0.7in. In Chinese, peng you means friend. But in any language, all Anna knows for certain is that friendship is complicated. When Anna needs company, she turns to her books. Whether traveling through A Wrinkle in Time, or peering over My Side of the Mountain, books provide what real life cannot constant companionship and insight into her changing world. Books, however, cant tell Anna how to find a true friend. She'll have to discover that on her own. In the tradition of classics like Maud Hart Lovelace's Betsy-Tacy books and Eleanor Estes' One Hundred Dresses, this novel subtly explores what it takes to make friends and what it means to be one. Reviews

This publication is amazing. It is definitely basic but shocks in the fifty percent of your publication. You won't feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for concerning if you question me).

This kind of book is every little thing and taught me to look ahead of time and a lot more. I am quite late in starting reading this one, but better than never. I found out this book from my dad and I encouraged this pdf to find out.
