

Going Bush

By Nadia Wheatley, Ken Searle

Murdoch Books. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Going Bush, Nadia Wheatley, Ken Searle, The award-winning journey of friendship and harmony involving sixteen children from eight schools in south-west Sydney as they explore their local environment and work collaboratively on art and writing. We should have harmony among people who live on this beautiful planet. We should make friends with people we don't know. We should play, share and have trust with everyone. Mohammed On this journey I experienced the bush and I experienced life. I also found a brandnew way to learn, and know new things. Christine We worked together, made friends, and played together. I learned about ngurra, trees and plants, animals and Aboriginal people. Alban In 2005 author Nadia Wheatley and artist Ken Searle developed a Harmony Project with sixteen students from eight infant and primary schools in Sydney some Muslim, some Catholic, some government schools. As well as experiencing the harmony of the natural environment, the children were encouraged to learn about harmony between the traditional owners and the land, and to find harmony in friendship and collaboration. Going Bush showcases some of the students illustration and writing, linked together with art and design by Ken...

READ ONLINE
[8.26 MB]

Reviews

This ebook can be worthy of a read, and much better than other. I have read and i am certain that i am going to planning to go through again once again in the future. You may like just how the writer compose this book.

-- Mr. Grant Stanton PhD

A whole new eBook with an all new standpoint. It is actually rally fascinating through reading through time period. You wont truly feel monotony at anytime of your own time (that's what catalogues are for relating to when you request me).

-- Claire Bartell