H. A. Bruce, Home Secretary of State Dear Sir, - I respectfully dedicate this pamphlet to you. Many reasons, both public and private, induce me to do so. Some of these I now purpose to record. Your excellent and honoured father, being long destitute of health, sought it in vain during a period of 30 years, by consulting many of the highest medical authorities in Europe. Most fortunately for him, and the world, he at last discovered a successful method of curing himself. Born of a high aristocratic family in the North of Scotland, and receiving a college education fitted to his position, he could not be regarded as an ignorant empiricist; but, contrariwise, as one who would carefully and intelligently study any remedial course he adopted for his own personal benefit. Nor after so many years of extreme suffering, could he be mistaken regarding the extraordinary cure he obtained for himself by his own treatment. Exulting in his renovated health and life, he enthusiastically betook himself to the gratuitous curing of many in London by the same means that cured himself; and thus he acquired additional evidence of the great curative value of his own medicine. Nor is this all. His mind, filled with the desire of simply doing good to the diseased, he unreservedly offered the recipe of his medicine to the medical profession; but, as might be expected, he found no disposition on their part to accept it and prove its efficacy...
