

Enabling Distributed Security in Cyberspace: Building a Healthy and Resilient Cyber Ecosystem with Automated Collective Action (Paperback)

By U S Department of Homeland Security

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 279 x 216 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This publication was prepared under the direction of Philip Reiting, Deputy Under Secretary for the National Protection and Programs Directorate (NPPD), U. S. Department of Homeland Security, with support from the NPPD Cyber Strategy Staff, the federally funded Homeland Security Systems Engineering and Development Institute (HS SEDI), and the NPPD Office of Cybersecurity and Communications (CSC). In 2010, NPPD sponsored a government workshop to discuss a draft of this publication. Recommendations from that workshop have been incorporated. This publication explores a future - a healthy cyber ecosystem - where cyber devices collaborate in near-real time in their own defense. In this future, cyber devices have innate capabilities that enable them to work together to anticipate and prevent cyber attacks, limit the spread of attacks across participating devices, minimize the consequences of attacks, and recover to a trusted state. This publication presents three building blocks as foundational for a healthy cyber ecosystem: automation, interoperability, and authentication. The publication then considers how these building blocks contribute to ecosystem maturity and explores incentives for creating such a system. It concludes with...

Reviews

These kinds of publication is the greatest pdf available. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.
