It is based on Capra s understanding of life as growing inevitably out of increasing complex of cell molecular relationships. Capra s belief is that life is a chain of networks and it is these networks that are the very essence of life. Capra tries to conceptualize this network concept in living systems by presenting a framework integrating the biological, cognitive and social dimensions of life. By integrating these three dimensions of life, Capra tries to justify the essence of the interconnections that equally exist in various human and social organizations. He does so by providing a systematic approach to life s critical issues which continue to have negative impacts on human and social organizations globally. The analysis brings up certain aspects of Capra s views of life and how society needed to be organized. These range...
