RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 44 pages. OCLC Number: (OCoLC)748555244 Subject: Emergency management -- United States. Excerpt: . . . a summary of the major sections of the Telework Enhancement Act; the checklist items that OPM used to evaluate telework policies to help agency officials assess and revise their policies; guidance on pay, leave, and work-schedule flexibilities, including the new option of unscheduled telework; and telework and reasonable accommodations for employees with disabilities. During the same period, OPM expanded some of its emergency-related pay and leave policies. For example, OPM broadened its regulations on pay during an evacuation to include, in the event of a pandemic health crisis, permission for agencies to order employees to work from home (or an alternative location), regardless of whether they have a telework agreement. As the lead agency in the management of federal workplaces, GSA provides governmentwide workplace guidance related to telework, emergency planning, and continuity planning and operations. Under its authority to provide guidance, assistance, and oversight on the establishment and operation of alternative workplace arrangements, such 21 GSA has issued guidelines, through Federal Management as telework, Regulation (FMR) Bulletins, on the use of information and telecommunication technology to support telework and the implementation and operation of alternative workplace arrangements, as shown in table 4. GSA, under its responsibility to operate, maintain, and protect the buildings and grounds it controls, also leads the federal Occupant Emergency Program, which consists of short-term emergency-22 response programs for particular facilities. Under this program, each agency or facility develops and maintains an occupant emergency plan (OEP) which details the procedures for safeguarding lives and property, such as evacuation or shelter-in-place, in response to a wide range of 23 At the agency level, the OEP...
